

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Building Worksheet – Level IV – Week 33A

octopus	logic	squatter	aqueduct	audience	auditorium	lawyer
---------	-------	----------	----------	----------	------------	--------

DEFINITIONS: Numbers 1 through 7 show definitions of the list words. Select the correct word that matches the definition from the two words at the end of each line and write it in the blank space provided. Teacher should briefly review all 7 words above with students before having them begin the exercise. All words (except one) are repeated 3 times in the activities below to give the repetition needed for accelerated memorization.

1. Someone who lives on vacant land who is not the actual owner: _____ (squatter, lawyer)
2. A large room or building for public meetings or performances: _____ (aqueduct, auditorium)
3. One whose job is to give legal advice and assistance: _____ (logic, lawyer)
4. A way of trying to solve problems that attempts to consider all consequences: _____ (logic, lawyer)
5. A pipe or channel (canal) designed to move water to another location: _____ (audience, aqueduct)
6. The group of people who watch a performance – those who listen: _____ (audience, lawyer)
7. A marine creature with a soft body, eight arms (tentacles) and large head: _____ (logic, octopus)

DEFINITION CLUES: Choose the word that best goes with the statement or riddle. Write it in the blank space provided.

8. A person without money and a job might be this since he can't afford housing: _____
9. If you have a problem you can either guess or use this process to get the best answer: _____
10. These are the people who would watch you in a Spelling Bee: _____
11. In fact, the audience would most likely watch you in this building: _____
12. This sea living creature has 8 muscular arms or tentacles but no shell: _____
13. Before the days of irrigation pipe and pumps, they made these to move water to distant locations: _____
14. This person can be hired in issues related to divorce, assault and battery, DUI, and lawsuits: _____

FILL-IN-THE-BLANK: Read the sentence. Choose the vocabulary word that best goes in the blank space provided.

15. These creatures are as small as 2 inches (5cm) in diameter in waters north of Cape Cod, 10 feet in the Mediterranean Sea and Atlantic and up to 30 feet in diameter in the Pacific Ocean: _____
16. When there is a war, people often become refugees since they leave their homes to try to find safety. In their travels, they are likely to become a _____ since they often live on someone else's land.
17. The Federal Triangle is between the Capitol and White House in Washington, D.C. Here you will find the Mellon _____ which is an assembly room that seats 2,500 people for ceremonies and events.
18. Aristotle was a Greek philosopher who lived from 384 B.C. to 322 B.C. He is known for his teachings of using _____ to solve problems.
19. The record for the most people under a tent to watch a circus act was set in 1924. The Ringling Brother's Circus performed in Kansas to an _____ of 16,702 people.
20. Probably first used in Mesopotamia, the _____ reached its peak construction in Roman times. You can still view some of the original ones in Rome which were used to transport water.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Building Worksheet – Level IV – Week 33B

satisfied	delegates	linen	situation	column	combat	solid
-----------	-----------	-------	-----------	--------	--------	-------

DEFINITIONS: Numbers 1 through 7 show definitions of the list words. Select the correct word that matches the definition from the two words at the end of each line and write it in the blank space provided. Teacher should briefly review all 7 words above with students before having them begin the exercise. All words (except one) are repeated 3 times in the activities below to give the repetition needed for accelerated memorization.

1. A person who works to represent the interests of others: _____ (delegates, situation)
2. To fight in war or battle: _____ (solid, combat)
3. To fulfill a need or desire – gratify – to be content: _____ (linen, satisfied)
4. Cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant: _____ (linen, solid)
5. Something that is organized vertically or up and down: _____ (combat, column)
6. Not hollow – - firm to the touch – not liquid or gas: _____ (delegates, solid)
7. A condition or set of circumstances that people find themselves in: _____ (column, situation)

DEFINITION CLUES: Choose the word that best goes with the statement or riddle. Write it in the blank space provided.

8. You would most likely feel this way after being hungry and then eating a wonderful dinner: _____
9. When looking at a piece of paper – rows go across and this would go up and down: _____
10. World War 1 (1914-1918), World War 2 (1939-1945) and for that matter, all wars have this: _____
11. If something is not a liquid or gas then it must be this: _____
12. This beautiful fabric is stronger than cotton and made from the stems of the flax plant: _____
13. Although not states, Puerto Rico, Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands are “territories” of the United States. They are represented by in Congress but these people who can speak but cannot vote: _____
14. You overslept, are late for school and now the car won’t start – not a very good set of circumstances to find yourself in: _____

FILL-IN-THE-BLANK: Read the sentence. Choose the vocabulary word that best goes in the blank space provided.

15. In 1787 in Philadelphia, 55 _____, or Representatives, from 12 of the 13 states met at the Constitutional Convention where the United States Constitution was drawn up.
16. The Giant Panda, usually classified as a bear, has a white face with black patches on the eyes and ears. He is very _____ eating its favorite food of bamboo shoots and leaves.
17. Matter that has a definite shape and volume, and is not a liquid or gas, is called a _____
18. In World War 2, which took place between 1939 and 1945, a total of 62 million people died. Most of the people who died were civilians and died not from _____, but from starvation and disease.
19. Considered a luxury fabric, _____ is very durable and used to make tablecloths and napkins.
20. In ancient Egypt, as early as 2600 BC, architects would use vertical stone _____(s) in the design of the building to add beauty and to support the weight of the structure.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Building Worksheet – Level IV – Week 33C

details	evil	pretend	trader	laborer	vacant	migrant
---------	------	---------	--------	---------	--------	---------

DEFINITIONS: Numbers 1 through 7 show definitions of the list words. Select the correct word that matches the definition from the two words at the end of each line and write it in the blank space provided. Teacher should briefly review all 7 words above with students before having them begin the exercise. All words (except one) are repeated 3 times in the activities below to give the repetition needed for accelerated memorization.

1. A building or room where no one lives – empty - not occupied: _____ (vacant, evil)
2. A small part or fact that is considered or looked at separately: _____ (details, vacant)
3. To make something seem real although it is not – play make-believe: _____ (evil, pretend)
4. A person who does physical work that requires very little skill: _____ (details, laborer)
5. Morally wrong – actions intended to cause harm: _____ (trader, evil)
6. A worker who moves from place to place to find work: _____ (migrant, trader)
7. Someone who is in the business of trading goods with others: _____ (trader, pretend)

DEFINITION CLUES: Choose the word that best goes with the statement or riddle. Write it in the blank space provided.

8. Someone doing unskilled work such as digging ditches or carrying concrete blocks: _____
9. Colonists gave Indians pots and pans and the Indians then gave the Colonists animal furs: _____
10. If people move out of a house, the house is now this: _____
11. A car salesman gives you all information about every small part of the car: _____
12. Some people move to different states picking fruit and vegetables for the agriculture industry: _____
13. Children like to dress up and play games such as being a teacher, doctor or cowboy: _____
14. A person with a selfish personality making a plan to hurt someone else: _____

FILL-IN-THE-BLANK: Read the sentence. Choose the vocabulary word that best goes in the blank space provided.

15. People who work in jobs requiring physical work and little skill or training are called _____, however, these workers are vital to a country that produces food and other goods.
16. Builders have built more homes than there are people who want to buy homes. Since supply is more than demand it is easy to find _____ homes just about anywhere.
17. A good worker will always pay close attention to the _____ or small but important parts of a job.
18. Sometimes it is fun to play make-believe or to _____ to be someone we are not.
19. There are people who pick citrus fruit in southern Florida and then move north to pick fruit and vegetables the year progresses. These people are called _____ workers.
20. Being friendly and nice, helping others and respecting others are examples of good deeds, which are the opposite of _____ deeds.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary Building Worksheet – Level IV – Week 33D

resources	mechanical	tomb	pyramid	anxious	isthmus	salmon
-----------	------------	------	---------	---------	---------	--------

DEFINITIONS: Numbers 1 through 7 show definitions of the list words. Select the correct word that matches the definition from the two words at the end of each line and write it in the blank space provided. Teacher should briefly review all 7 words above with students before having them begin the exercise. All words (except one) are repeated 3 times in the activities below to give the repetition needed for accelerated memorization.

1. An edible pinkish fish that migrates to a freshwater stream to lay its eggs: _____ (salmon, isthmus)
2. Something that can be used for support or help when needed: _____ (tomb, resources)
3. Having worry – being fearful or nervous about something: _____ (mechanical, anxious)
4. A solid figure with triangular sides that meet at a common point: _____ (pyramid, tomb)
5. Refers to things like machines which have moving parts: _____ (mechanical, isthmus)
6. A special place for burial that consists of a vault or chamber: _____ (tomb, salmon)
7. Narrow strip of land with water on both sides that links two large land areas: _____ (tomb, isthmus)

DEFINITION CLUES: Choose the word that best goes with the statement or riddle. Write it in the blank space provided.

8. A synonym for grave, this word is derived from the Greek word “tymbos” meaning burial ground: _____
9. These huge, stone structures of ancient Egypt were used as tombs for the pharaohs (kings): _____
10. Books, money, gasoline, wood, food and water are some examples of helpful things: _____
11. This is a popular edible fish that migrates from freshwater to seawater and back to freshwater: _____
12. A washing machine, lawn mower, automobile or any device with moving parts: _____
13. The country of Panama is located in Central America. It is a narrow strip of land with water on both sides. It is about 40 miles across at its skinniest point and links North and South America: _____
14. The opposite of calm and relaxed: _____

FILL-IN-THE-BLANK: Read the sentence. Choose the vocabulary word that best goes in the blank space provided.

15. This structure was built about 4000 years ago in Egypt and is one of the Seven Wonders of the World. It was originally 487 ft (147 m) tall and is called the Great _____ of Khufu.
16. To save ships hundreds of miles of traveling distance, a canal was built through the country of Panama. This was an ideal location since Panama is an _____ with a distance across of about 40 miles.
17. Things such as timber, soil, minerals, plants and even sunlight are called natural _____ because they are provided by nature and occur naturally on earth
18. King Tut was a king of Egypt some 4000 years ago. He ruled at age 9 and is well known today because he is the only pharaoh to have his nearly intact _____ discovered filled with priceless treasures.
19. Power drills, electric motors and even rocket engines are considered _____ devices.
20. This word is defined in the dictionary as meaning uneasy or worried, however, it is often used in conversation as meaning eager, such as children _____ to open their birthday presents.